

COURSE OUTCOME

B.A. Political Science (General) under CBCS

Session: 2018-19 to 2022-23

CORE

CC 1/GE 1 – Introduction to Political Theory

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- understand the meaning, nature and significance of political theory
- relate these ideas with the real world politics

CC 2/GE 2 –Comparative Government and Politics

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- develop an understanding about the various political systems
- make comparative analysis among the various political systems

CC 3/GE 3 –Government and Politics in India

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- comprehend the functioning of the political institutions of India
- understand the role of different socio-economic factors in the Indian politics

CC 4/GE 4 –International Relations

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- comprehend the major approaches of international relations
- understand the evolution of world politics after the second world war

Discipline Specific Electives (DSE)

DSE-A-1A –Public Administration

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- develop an understanding about the theoretical aspects of public administration
- relate these aspects with the actual functioning of administration

DSE-A-1B –Indian Foreign Policy

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- know the meaning, scope and the instruments of foreign policy
- know the basic determinants of India's foreign policy

DSE-B-2A –Feminism: Theory and Practice

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- understand that 'Gender' is a construct
- comprehend the implications of gender relations in the socio-economic milieu of India

DSE-B-2B –Human Rights: Theory and Indian Context

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- get the idea about the concept of human right
- understand how the idea has been received in the Indian scenario

Skill Enhancement Courses (SEC)

SEC-A(1) –Legal Literacy

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- Understand fundamental legal concepts, principles and terminologies
- Apply legal literacy skills to identify and address legal issues and challenges in personal , professional and civic contexts

SEC-B(1) – Elementary Dimensions of Research

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- Demonstrate a clear understanding of fundamental concepts and terminologies in research methodology
- Apply ethical principles and guidelines in the planning and conduct of research activities

SEC-A(2) – Understanding the Legal System

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- Demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of the structure, functions and components of the legal system
- Be aware of different kinds of lower courts and their functions in everyday life

SEC-B(2) – Basic Research Methods

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- Develop their research skills and learn about the research methods
- Conduct research in different fields

COURSE OUTCOME

B.A. Political Science (General) under 1+1+1 System

Session: 2018-19 to 2019-20

Paper- II- Comparative Politics and Government

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- develop an understanding about the various political systems
- make comparative analysis among the various political systems

Paper- III- Indian Government and Politics

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- comprehend the functioning of the political institutions of India
- understand the role of different socio-economic factors in Indian politics

Paper-IV- Contemporary Political and Administrative Issues in India

After the completion of the course the students will be able to:

- develop a knowledge about the administrative organs of India and their functions
- know about the system of local self-government of our country