

Programme Outcomes

Programme Outcomes (POs) represent the knowledge, skills and attitudes a learner is expected to have at the end of any graduation programmes, BA Honours and BA General Programme for Mahitosh Nandy Mahavidyalaya. The Programme Outcomes are discipline non-specific. The Programme Outcomes for BA Honours and BA General Programmes for our college are formed keeping in mind the overall course of study. These outcomes are designed to ensure that students are well-prepared for their chosen field and can demonstrate competency in key areas. POs help to measure the success of a program and provide a framework for evaluating student learning. Programme Outcomes of the BA Hons and BA General programmes typically include:

1. Knowledge: Students should have a strong understanding of the core concepts and theories relevant to their field of study.
2. Skills: Students should be able to apply their knowledge in practical settings and demonstrate proficiency in key areas such as problem-solving, critical thinking, communication, and technical skills.
3. Attitudes: Students should demonstrate a positive attitude towards learning, professional development, teamwork, and ethical behavior.
4. Graduates should be able to communicate effectively in both oral and written forms.
5. Graduates should possess the ability to work effectively in teams, with diverse backgrounds and perspectives.
6. Graduates should have the ability to engage in lifelong learning and professional development to keep up with advancements in their field.
7. Graduates should demonstrate ethical behavior and social responsibility in their professional practice.
8. Graduates should have the ability to analyze and interpret data, and apply this information to make informed decisions.
9. Graduates should possess leadership qualities and exhibit good management skills.
10. Graduates should have a global perspective and be aware of cultural differences and diversity in their field.

Overall, Programme Outcomes are designed to ensure that students are well-rounded, competent professionals who can succeed in their chosen careers and contribute positively to society.
